

Melvin's Gardens

First annual

Pesto Fest

Saturday August 29th

3 PM thru 6 PM

Come, spend the afternoon sampling the wonderful varieties of pesto and herb oils as they are demonstrated by one of our favorite triangle chefs, from Six plates and Local Yogurts in Durham. We are proud to present, Chef Ted Domville at the farm."

What can I do at the farm???

- You will be learning what to do with larger quantities of herbs.
- You can sample the demo samples with your choice of pastas.
- You can enjoy the chickens and the new kittens.
- You can buy fresh herbs in quantity Also pine nuts and garlic.
- You can walk to the basil field and learn how we harvest basil.

- You can purchase local tomatoes and free range eggs from the farm.
- You will enjoy the local musicians performing just for your visit.
- Professional Photographer, Charles Gupton will be covering the event
- You can sample our own mint tea and lavender brownies.
- Choose your dinner plate from what you have tasted.
- Local artists will be featured with their work set up for you.

For your reserved spot, send $15.00 per person ($5.00 for children under 12) with your name, address, phone number and e-mail address to

Melvin's Gardens

2863 Sims Bridge Rd., Kittrell, NC 27544

All reservations in by August 20th will be accepted. The sooner the better will help us plan for the event.

Linda Melvin 252-432-9118

e-mail basillady1@gmail.com

website

melvinsgardens.com